- 3) If any Department employee does not agree with the retention period of a record series or discovers a record that does not have a retention period, the Records Retention Coordinator shall be contacted, who will, in turn, contact the Records Management Officer, with justification, to request an addition of or modification to the retention period.
- 4) All records shall be disposed of in accordance with the current Records Retention Schedule (copy attached), with appropriate approval of the Certificate of Records Disposal, UNLESS a record scheduled for destruction is involved in an active suit, arbitration, investigation or audit. - 6) The Records Management Officer shall confirm the Records Retention Record for the record series and return a signed and approved copy of the Certificate of Records Disposal to the requestor so that destruction can occur. No record may be disposed of without a signed Certificate of Records Disposal from the Records Management Officer. If a request is denied in whole or in part, an explanation for the denial shall be included.

The annual clean out shall include a review of all hard copy records as well as computer files. Those that exceed the retention period shall be processed for disposal, unless a litigation hold notice (see Department Regulation AM-G-6 "Electronically Stored Information and Data Preservation" for additional information) has been issued.

b. The following are examples of the types of records that generally should be discarded during the Records Clean-Out period; however, some of these types of records may be retained to reflect compliance with policies/procedures.

These electronic records include, but are not limited to advertising and marketing materials, so-called "junk mail", brochures, flyers, announcements, registration forms, etc.
- Obsolete calendars, lists, newspaper and magazine clippings, personal phone and address lists, greeting cards and unneeded business cards from others.

H. Imaged Document Management System

The IDMS approved by the Undersecretary shall include provisions for data migration to ensure that records being imaged today are accessible, retrievable and readable in the future. To ensure consistency of the Department's IDMS and the scope of accessibility of documents stored within the IDMS, no unit is authorized to implement an IDMS without prior approval from the Undersecretary.
- 2) Any new IDMS system shall include Optical Character Recognition (OCR) digital imaging functionality. All IDMS's shall comply with the provisions of the Department's records retention requirements, as well as the requirements of Department Regulation No. A-05-010 "Electronically Stored Information and Data Preservation."

- 4) The Office of Information Services shall direct purging of documents for the preceding fiscal year(s) from the IDMS in accordance with the Department's Records Retention Schedule by December 31st of each year.

I. Digital Imaging Quality Control Procedures

Upon implementation of the Department's IDMS as authorized by the Undersecretary, each Unit Head shall insure that a comprehensive quality control system is implemented to ensure the integrity of the imaged documents.

- 1) At the point of scan, the individual scanner operator shall review each image as it is scanned through the machine to ensure clarity and completeness with each image scanned. Issues that may cause the scanner operator to stop the machine and rescan the pages include, but are not limited to:
 - a. Portion of the page is folded over, obstructing page content;
 - b. Legal papers were not unfolded during the assembly process, obstructing page content;
 - c. Worn pages with rips and tears need to be taped and copied and the copy scanned;
 - d. Images cannot clearly be read and may require a change in the DPI setting;
 - e. Page orientation is not appropriate;
 - f. Illegible pages (images too dark or not dark enough);
 - g. Duplication of pages.
- 2) The individual scanner operator shall correct any issue(s) found. Resolution of these issues may involve an on-screen fix or may require the actual page to be rescanned and inserted in the appropriate place within the electronic file.
- 3) Once the documents have completed the page by page quality control (QC) process pursuant to this regulation, the indices shall be reviewed for correctness to ensure the appropriate documents are attached to the correct index.

- 4) Upon completion of the QC process and index verification, the unit shall retain the original documents for a period of at least 90 days prior to disposal of the original documents. Each Unit Head shall develop internal procedures for the 90 day retention period of OCR digitally imaged documents to include document destruction procedures and to ensure appropriate disposal of imaged documents following their retention period.

NOTE: This 90 day retention period of the original document is applicable ONLY to those records with a retention period of ten years or less. Digitally imaged records with a retention period of ten years or more may not be disposed of until the retention period has expired and the approval of the Records Management Officer.

J. Artifacts

All photographs, other visual material and artifacts significant to the unit or the Department's history shall not be disposed of in any manner. These items shall be sent to the Louisiana State Penitentiary Museum once the retention period has expired and the respective unit/facility/division no longer has a use for the artifacts.

K. Audit

The Records Management Officer may request an audit of any district, institution, office or unit to ensure all records are scheduled for retention and destruction in accordance with the Records Management Program.
